

Unfortunately, even with the most rigorous sanitation protocols, enhanced client screening, and social distancing precautions, there is still risk of COVID-19 transmission involved.

We ask that you wear a mask upon entering and when in our small common areas. We will have a questionnaire and ask you to wash your hands.

We will allow you to remove your mask in the massage room. However, we will be wearing a mask the entire time. This information changes rapidly, so please stay tuned.